Strong Job Market Expected in First Quarter of 2019 for Texas

- U.S. hiring intentions at 12 year high as demand for skilled workers is set to grow
- Employers across Texas anticipate a Net Employment Outlook* of 21
- For the coming quarter, job prospects appear best in Construction, Durable Goods Manufacturing, Nondurable Goods Manufacturing, Transportation & Utilities, Wholesale & Retail Trade, Information, Financial Activities, Professional & Business Services, Education & Health Services, Leisure & Hospitality, Other
- ManpowerGroup Employment Outlook Survey signals U.S. likely to hit 100 months of consecutive job growth in January

December 11, 2018 - Texas employers expect to hire at an optimistic pace during Quarter 1 2019, according to the ManpowerGroup's (NYSE: MAN) latest ManpowerGroup Employment Outlook Survey.

Among employers surveyed, 25 percent plan to hire more employees from January through March. This number is offset by the 4 percent that plan to reduce payrolls, while 71 percent of employers expect to maintain current staff levels and 0 percent indicate they are not sure of their hiring plans. This yields a Net Employment Outlook* of 21

"Employers in the Texas anticipate a stable hiring pace compared to Q4 2018 when the Net Employment Outlook was 20," said ManpowerGroup spokesperson, Todd Casler. "At this time last year, employers expected hiring activity to slow down when the Outlook was 18."
