Upbeat Job Market Expected in Fourth Quarter of 2019 for New York

- For the coming months of October-December, employers are optimistic to hire in Construction, Durable Goods Manufacturing, Nondurable Goods Manufacturing, Transportation & Utilities, Wholesale & Retail Trade, Financial Activities, Professional & Business Services, Education & Health Services, Leisure & Hospitality, and Government.
- Positive job forecasts reported across all 50 states and 100 largest metro areas with a +20% national Outlook for Q4 2019, up 1 percentage point year-over-year.

Milwaukee, WI (Sept. 10, 2019) – U.S. employers expect the hiring pace to remain positive in Q4 2019 with hiring intentions improving one percentage point compared to a year ago, according to the ManpowerGroup (NYSE: MAN) Employment Outlook Survey. The last time the survey of more than 11,500 employers reported a Q4 Net Employment Outlook (NEO) as high as +20% was in Q4 2006.* For the coming quarter in New York, employers expect to hire at a respectable pace of 11%. Among employers surveyed, 18 percent plan to hire more employees from October through December. This number is offset by the 7 percent that plan to reduce payrolls, while 74 percent of employers expect to maintain current staff levels and 1 percent indicate they are not sure of their hiring plans.

"Compared to last quarter's Net Employment Outlook of 23%, New York employers have reported a weaker hiring pace of 11%," said Dave Sherman, spokesperson for Manpower, a ManpowerGroup brand. "When looking at expectations from this time last year of 15%, hiring managers anticipate the upcoming season's payrolls to slow down."

Summary of Results for New York

| Staff Levels | Increase | Decrease | Maintain | Don't Know | NEO |
|---------------------|----------|----------|----------|------------|-----|
| Q4 2019 Current | 18% | 7% | 74% | 1% | 11% |
| Q3 2019 Q-over-Q | 26% | 3% | 69% | 2% | 23% |
| Q4 2018 Y-over-Y | 21% | 6% | 71% | 2% | 15% |

*The Net Employment Outlook is derived by taking the percentage of employers anticipating an increase in hiring activity and subtracting from this the percentage of employers expecting a decrease in hiring activity.

For the coming months of October-December, employers are optimistic to hire in Construction, Durable Goods Manufacturing, Nondurable Goods Manufacturing, Transportation & Utilities, Wholesale & Retail Trade, Financial Activities, Professional & Business Services, Education & Health Services, Leisure & Hospitality, and Government. In contrast, local employers expect a decrease in payrolls in Other Services. Job prospects in Information remain unchanged.
