District of Columbia Employers Report Hopeful Hiring Outlook for Q2 2021 as Employers Evaluate Vaccination Expectations

- For the coming months of April-June employers are optimistic to hire in Construction, Nondurable Goods Manufacturing, Wholesale & Retail Trade, Financial Activities, Professional & Business Services, Education & Health Services, Leisure & Hospitality and Government.
- Hiring intentions remain solid in Q2 with an Employment Outlook of +18%, an increase of one percentage point from last quarter.
- 4% of US employers say employees must be vaccinated, while 48% of employers report it will be up to employees to decide.
- Only 6% expect to allow workers to work remotely full-time

MILWAUKEE, WI (March 9, 2021) — District of Columbia employers plan to hire at a positive pace in Q2 2021 with an Employment Outlook of 13%*, according to the ManpowerGroup Employment Outlook Survey (NYSE: MAN). Among employers surveyed, 17 percent plan to hire more employees from April through June. This number is offset by the 4 percent that plan to reduce payrolls while 75 percent of employers expect to maintain current staff levels and 4 percent indicate they are not sure of their hiring plans. This yields a Net Employment Outlook (NEO) of 13 percent. Research was conducted in January 2021 and the survey is the most comprehensive, forward-looking employment survey of its kind, used globally as a key economic indicator.
