What Workers Want

Get it right the first time. What attracts workers to an organization can also be what engages and makes them stay. When competition for talent and skills is so acute, getting it right up front brings return on investment for the long term. Globally, these are the top five needs and desires that are non-negotiables for all workers.

1. Challenging work in the form of education, experience and exposure
   - People want challenging work, to develop skills and further careers. Challenge ranks among the top 5 priorities for workers of all ages, genders and geographies.

2. Flexibility and control over calendar is a must and contributes to worker wellbeing
   - Flexibility ranks among the top 3 priorities for workers of all ages, genders and geographies. It’s the 2nd most important factor.

3. Personalized career insight, driven from data and assessment
   - 81% of workers who have been assessed report higher job satisfaction.

4. Pay always matters – but how it’s delivered matters more
   - Pay is the top attraction and retention factor for all workers under 65 years old, regardless of gender.

5. Purpose is a must. Workers want to take pride in what they do and who they work for
   - Purpose, brand and reputation rank among top 10 attraction factors for all workers.

A Holistic Talent Strategy

 Winning in the digital age demands faster, more targeted approaches than ever before. To meet the needs of today’s in-demand talent, an effective talent strategy should comprise a mix of four key elements: Build, Buy, Borrow and Bridge.

- Build
  - Invest in learning and development to grow your talent pipeline
- Buy
  - Go to external markets to find the best talent that cannot be built in-house in the timeframe required
- Borrow
  - Cultivate communities of talent outside the organization, including part-time, freelance, contract and temporary workers to complement existing skills
- Bridge
  - Help people move on and move up to new roles inside or outside the organization
