54% of companies globally report talent shortages, the highest in over a decade.

With such an acute talent shortage, employers are challenged with catering to the needs and desires of an increasingly in-demand workforce while others are trying to do the same. To be successful, they need to understand what workers want as part of a holistic talent strategy.

The Hardest Skills to Find

Engineering followed by Sales & Marketing and IT are the hardest roles to fill.

Difficulty Filling Roles by Company Size

Medium companies (50–249 employees) have the most difficulty filling roles; followed by large (250+ employees), small (10–49 employees) and micro (less than 10 employees).

What Workers Want

Get it right the first time. What attracts workers to an organization can also be what engages and makes them stay. When competition for talent and skills is as acute, getting it right up front brings return on investment for the long term.

Globally, these are the top five needs and desires that are non-negotiables for all workers.

- Challenging work in the form of education, experience and exposure
